

City Sew-er's

Zoom Meeting

February 2 & 16, 2021

February 2, 2021 Zoom Meeting

Marion Riley Wall Art
Cut fabric

Carolyn made a Mole pillowcase for Marian when she was quarantining in her basement

Carolyn's daughter received these hand embellished jeans from a friend

Carolyn made a teacup wall hanging. Notice the intricate and detailed embroidered applique's in this Sue Spargo pattern.

Another Sue Spargo pattern with gorgeous appliques.

close-up views

Carolyn's BEAUTIFUL! wall hanging with embroidered appliques using a Sue Spargo pattern.

More Carolyn's wall hanging close up views Sue Spargo pattern

Top – front , right - back

Carolyn used a Sue Spargo pattern to make a needle roll.

Closed w button trim

Ruth made this Cuddle Coat Pattern

February 16, 2021 Zoom Meeting

Look at the detail in this quilt that Carolyn made!

Adorable baby quilt Carolyn made. The back is a stripe fabric

Another great Sue Spargo pattern that Carolyn has made.

Look at this Miyako Furoshiki bag that Carolyn made using Marcia Derse fabric.

Ruth made a bib for her husband to keep his shirt clean. It has been a very popular item at local nursing home. Zoom screenshot

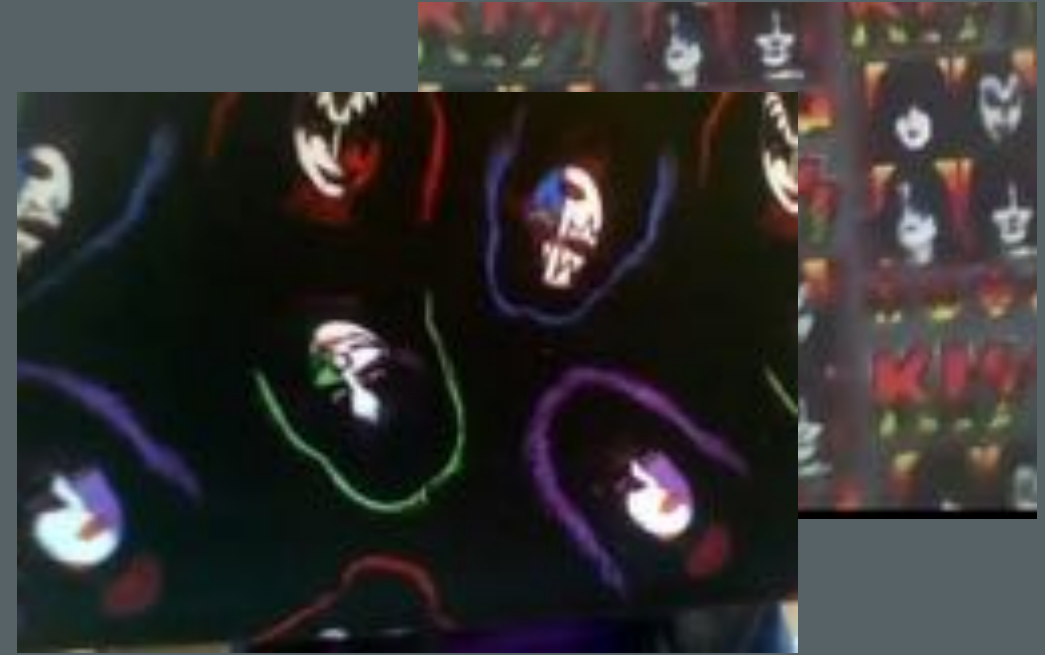

Nancy E showed wool fabric she is going to use to make a jacket and a skirt. See the very top of her head, she's hiding! Zoom screenshot

Marian made an apron for her brother-in-law to celebrate a Chili Championship Cook Off. Zoom screenshot

Cathy E showed her elegant detailed embroidered card, one of many she has made. Zoom screenshot

Leslie B has a table of masks ready to sew. Note the interesting fabrics (top - "Kiss", and right - Mizzou) Zoom screenshots

Kathy E showed the SLU Billikens 3D Mask she made using a pattern from Sew Kate Sew (Zoom screenshot)

Thanks for viewing!